Coach travel was funded for four teams of 6 represented Newcastle AC UK fell running relay championships in the Lake District, the trip was open to all members and everyone that asked to travel was included, 25 members in total.

Overall club funds have increased of past 12 months.

All members are asked to identify charities that they have a personal connection with that could be supported during 2019.

The committee will also consider supporting club trips to running events (e.g. coach hire), basic requirements are,

1. Open to all members before entries close
2. Club member volunteering to help co-ordinate

There is no point asking for funding support after entries have closed.
